THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. RAMULU

W.P.No.20317 of 2006

ORAL ORDER:

It appears, the petitioner was selected as Fair Price Shop Dealer of Shop No.95, Rangasaipet, Warangal Mandal, Warangal District. As per the advice of the respondent herein, she also paid an amount of Rs.4,000/- towards deposit and authorization is yet to be issued. At this point of time, one P.Suresh, temporary dealer filed W.P.No.22409 of 2001 when he was sought to be replaced by another temporary dealer R.Srinivas. Initially, interim orders were granted in the said writ petition and the said P.Suresh was continued. However, the writ petition was disposed of by order dated 17.12.2003 directing the respondents to continue the petitioner as temporary fair price shop dealer, till permanent arrangement is made. Further, it is made clear that the said order would not preclude the respondent herein to take steps for making permanent arrangement in accordance with the A.P. Public Distribution Control Order, 2001.

Now, the only grievance of the petitioner is that in spite of the said writ petition was disposed of, she is not being issued with authorization in respect of Fair Price Shop No.95 of Rangasaipet, on permanent basis though she was selected and completed all the formalities. In this regard, the petitioner also filed a representation dated 28.7.2006 ventilating her grievance, but the said representation is not yet disposed of.

Prima facie, it appears that only in view of the pendency of earlier writ petition, authorization was not given to the petitioner on permanent basis though she was selected after undergoing due process by depositing Rs.4,000/-.

In view of the above, the Respondent-Revenue Divisional Officer is directed to dispose of the representation purported to have been made by the petitioner, and pass appropriate orders as per law within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and communicate the same to the petitioner.

With the above direction, the writ petition disposed of. No order as to costs.
